

Unlimit Health Art Competition – December 2025 (“Competition”)

Terms and Conditions

1. This Competition is open to all UK residents aged 18 years or over. Proof of age may be required. Employees (or family members of employees) of the Promoter, companies or organisations associated with the Competition and all affiliates of such companies or organisations may not enter this Competition.
2. Entrants will be deemed to have accepted these terms and conditions and agreed to be bound by them when entering this Competition.
3. To take part in this Competition you must:
 - a. Submit on behalf of your child (Child) a hand drawn poster on the theme ‘Light the Path to a world free from neglected tropical diseases’;
 - b. Enter the Competition by submitting a photo of the poster via email to info@unlimithealth.org.

We cannot accept entries by any other means.
 - b. The following personal details and contact information will also have to be provided:
 1. First name and first letter of surname of the Child
 2. Age of the Child
 3. Where the Child lives (city, country)
 4. Your full name as Parent or Guardian of the Child
 4. An active email address so that we can contact you about the Competition only. By entering the Competition, you will not be automatically signed up to a mailing list or contacted for donations unless you specifically ask us to;
 5. A valid phone number if you want to be contacted about the Competition by phone
 6. The artwork’s title
 7. In no more than 100 words, the story behind the artwork. The entrant will explain what inspired them and their creative process.
4. The poster should be no bigger than A3, and submitted as a high-resolution photograph, and in one of the following formats: JPEG, PNG. The file size must be at least 1MB and not exceed 20MB. An entry submitted in any other format will not be accepted. The image itself will comprise your artwork.
5. No purchase or donation necessary.
6. Maximum of one entry per person.
7. Opening Date: The Competition will run from 12:00 (GMT) on Monday 8th December 2025.

8. Closing Date: All entries must be received by 23.59pm (GMT) on Monday 12th January 2026. Competition entries received after the Closing Date will not qualify. The Promoter reserves the right to extend the Closing Date if necessary.
9. The Promoter does not accept responsibility for network, computer, hardware or software failures of any kind, which may restrict or delay the sending or receipt of your entry. Entries must not be sent in through agents or third parties. Incomplete entries, and entries which do not satisfy the requirements of these terms and conditions, will be disqualified and will not be counted.
10. If the Promoter has grounds to suspect any entrant or third party of cheating, deception or fraudulent or unsportsman-like conduct of any kind (including, without limitation, manipulating the Competition, choice of prize winner(s) or any entry) the Promoter reserves the right (in its sole discretion) to disqualify any entrant, entry or person it reasonably believes to be responsible for, or associated with, such activity.
11. The Competition entries will be judged by a panel of judges based on the most creative picture per age group.
12. The panel of judges will review all entries and create a shortlist of 2 entries for each of the 4 categories “5 to 7 years old”, “8 to 10 years old”, “11 to 13 years old” and “14 to 16 years old” from all complete, correct and eligible entries received before the Closing Date. Amongst the shortlists of 2 entries per age category, the panel of judges will choose the winner of the Competition for each age category (there will be three winners in total).
13. The decision of the judging panel will be final.
14. A list of names of the judges can be viewed on the website of the Promoter from the Closing Date for a period of 60 days.
15. The 4 winning posters (together with the first name of the winner, and the story behind the artwork) will also be published on the Promoter’s website and the general public will be invited to vote for their favourite. The voting will open on 19 January 2026 at 12:00 and will close at 23:59 on 25 January 2026.
16. The winners, including the public choice, will be notified by the Promoter by email.
17. You agree that the Promoter may, but is not required to, share your Child’s drawing on the Promoter’s website and in the Parliament, and on any other media or selected premises. You agree to grant the Promoter a free, non-exclusive, worldwide, irrevocable licence, for the full period of any intellectual property rights in the competition entry and any accompanying materials, to use, display, publish, transmit, copy, edit, alter, store, re-format and sub-licence the competition entry and any accompanying materials for any commercial or charitable purposes.
18. Clause 17 however does not guarantee that your work will be used by the Promoter at any point during the campaign.
19. By submitting your Entry, you warrant and undertake that:
 - a. You as parent or guardian of the Child are the legal and beneficial owner of all intellectual property rights in the entry (including all images, footage, music and text submitted by you as part of the entry process), that your entry is your Child’s original work and does not infringe any third party rights;

- b. You have the right to grant the Promoter permission to use your entry in the ways described in clause 17 of these terms and conditions.
 - c. Your entry does not infringe English law or the law in the country in which you are normally resident;
 - d. Your entry does not, to the best of your knowledge and belief, infringe the law of any other country;
 - e. Your entry complies with all terms and conditions of use applicable to the relevant social media platforms.
 - f. You hereby waive and agree not to assert (and warrant that all individuals featured have waived and agreed not to assert) any moral rights in and in connection with the entry;
 - g. You shall, on request, do such other things and execute such documents as are reasonably requested of you by the Promoter in order to allow the Promoter to use your entry for the permitted purposes;
20. The Promoter reserves the right to pass on any entry (including the associated personal details) which cause it concern to the relevant authorities.
21. You agree to indemnify the Promoter in respect of third party claims arising out of or in connection with any breach by you of the warranties and undertakings set out in these terms and conditions (in particular, the warranties and undertakings set out in clause 19 of these terms and conditions (above)).

 - c. an exhibition of the winning posters at the Houses of Parliament during an event commemorating World NTD Day [insert dates].
 - b. The prizes do not include travel or any other expenses relating to taking part in the Competition or relating to taking part in the event at the Parliament.
 - c. The winner, who is also the public choice, will not have an additional prize.
23. The Promoter reserves the right to substitute the prize (or any part of it) for a prize or prizes of equivalent or greater monetary value if this is necessary for reasons beyond its control. There is no cash alternative to the prize (or any part of it) and unless agreed otherwise in writing the prize is non-refundable and non-transferable. Regarding the event at the Parliament, the date of the event cannot be changed to accommodate winners.
24. Third party terms and conditions apply to parts of the prizes where applicable.

25. The Promoter reserves the right to amend these terms and conditions at any time.
26. If any winner is not able, for any reason, to accept a prize, or does not respond to the Promoter's notification within 15 days of the draw date, the Promoter reserves the right to award the prize to another entrant.
27. The judges' and Promoter's decisions shall be final and binding in all respects on all entrants. No correspondence will be entered into. Entries that do not comply in full with these entry rules and conditions will be disqualified.
- 28. Except in the case of death or personal injury arising from its negligence, or in respect of fraud, and so far as is permitted by law, the Promoter and its associated companies and agents exclude responsibility and all liabilities arising from:
- a) any postponement or cancellation of the Competition, and
 - b) any changes to, supply of (including, without limitation, prizes which do not reach the intended recipient), or use of the prize, and
 - c) any act or default of any third party supplier, which are beyond the Promoter's reasonable control.
29. Details of prize winner and runner up's names will be available for one month after the close of the Competition by writing to the Promoter at the address set out below and stating the name and closing date of the Competition.
30. By submitting an entry to the competition, you give the Promoter the right to contact you regarding your child's artwork (your entry) and the right to use your child's name and town, or city of residence, your child's accompanying story for the sole purpose of identifying your child as the creator of the artwork and/or as the shortlisted entrants and/or winner of the competition. Please note that your data may be processed outside of the EU.
31. You can contact the Promoter on via email at info@unlimithealth.org to withdraw consent for the use of your artwork up until 48 hours before your art is in the public domain, after which we will be unable to withdraw it.
32. This Competition, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law. You irrevocably agree that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim that arises out of or in connection with this Competition.
